TOP KEYNOTES

-Mind versus Machine: "Inside the mind of a Cybercriminal"

Hackers are getting more and more creative every single day. Do you know your enemy? How they think? What they are after? And how you can stop them?

-Custom Keynote for your Event

Bryan will work with your team to create a memorable, entertaining and highly informative experience that your attendees will never forget.

"Bryan was a refreshing change from most other industry speakers. Sipping on an energy drink and making light of his near-incarceration for wiretapping certain three-letter agencies, his stories regarding his experiences as an ethical hacker were relevant and fresh (all were hacks that had just recently hit the news) and were delivered with a comedic edge (think: Louis CK meets Kevin Mitnick) that kept all of our viewers engaged, laughing and ready for more. At the end of his talk, Bryan said the most useful tool in his ethical hacking arsenal has been kindness, respect and treating people honorably. Based on his interactions with our chapter, he obviously practices what he preaches.

- Steven Crowley | (ISC)² Aberdeen Chapter, Acting Vice President

Said of Bryan & his team "I like working with them. They look to help rather than exploit. We have learned from them and I think their experience will be valuable to other app publishers and networks as well."

- Mark Cuban | Owner of Dallas Mavericks, Sharktank Star, Author, Investor.
